

Norman Waterhouse

LAWYERS

Norman Waterhouse welcomes Anna Hsiao to its migration practice.

Norman Waterhouse has a long history of working with overseas clients, particularly investors from China, providing to them a range of services associated with migration, commercial and property development matters.

In the migration area, Norman Waterhouse focuses in particular on:

- Business Skills migration – business ownership or investment
- Employer Nomination migration – temporary and permanent programs.

As part of a planned expansion of its migration practice, Norman Waterhouse is pleased to welcome Anna Hsiao, a solicitor and registered migration agent with 5 years' experience of advising clients on migration matters. The addition of Anna brings Norman Waterhouse's bilingual (Chinese/English) practitioners to six, four of whom are registered migration agents.

For further enquiries about Norman Waterhouse's migration and international practice, please contact Maria Ho via email mho@normans.com.au, phone +618 8210 1274 or mobile +618 403 255 998

Maria Ho

PARTNER
MARN 0745502

Maria Ho heads the migration team and, together with Sean Keenihan, leads the international business practice. She joined Norman Waterhouse in 2006 and since then has utilised her extensive experience within commercial and migration law to build a robust and highly successful international business practice for the Firm.

Maria is fluent in spoken and written Cantonese and Mandarin and is an accredited NAATI professional level Chinese-English two way translator. Maria provides overseas investors with a range of services designed to assist them to establish a solid base for conducting business in Australia.

Sean Keenihan

PARTNER
MARN 0430066

Sean Keenihan is the team leader of the Firm's Property Development team and heads the international business practice with Maria Ho.

He is the President of the South Australian branch of the Australia China Business Council (ACBC).

The ACBC is Australia's premier business organisation dedicated to trade with China. The ACBC in South Australia is collaborating with the South Australian Government and industry to develop the State's China Strategy that captures salient opportunities (as seen by government and industry) for South Australian business presented by the growing Chinese economy and sets out strategies to be pursued by government and industry to realise these opportunities.

Anna Hsiao

ASSOCIATE
MARN 0532898

Anna Hsiao has recently joined the Firm and comes with over five years' experience within the migration law industry. Prior to joining Norman Waterhouse, Anna worked in Sydney with a firm that represented a large number of ASX 100 clients where she had the opportunity to work closely with an international client base within the banking/finance, scientific and pharmaceutical, professional services and management consultancy, engineering, information technology and telecommunications sectors. Anna has a successful track record of providing advice and assistance on immigration law and policy. She has particular expertise in employer sponsored temporary and permanent visas including sound knowledge of the legal requirements and compliance issues relating to Australian businesses employing overseas workers. Anna speaks Chinese Mandarin.

Angela Wang

SOLICITOR
MARN 1174510

Angela joined Norman Waterhouse's Corporate & Commercial team in 2010 and holds bachelor degrees in Commerce (Accounting) and Laws. Growing up in China, Angela speaks and writes fluent Mandarin and provides support to the Firm's China practice. Angela is a registered migration agent and is currently obtaining NAATI accreditation as a professional level Chinese-English 2 way translator.