

There are plenty of reasons to enjoy the Advoc Open Board Meeting in Prague, 4 to 6 October 2013.

This is the Czech Republic. A country in the middle of Europe. Twelve cities included in the World Heritage List. And we would like to see you in one of them, Prague, the capital of Czech Republic.

Do you know Prague? One of the most beautiful cities in Europe, Prague is famous for its historical city centre with legendary moments influencing the history of the entire continent. But there are more reasons for visiting Prague.

Because in Prague, there are hundreds of incredible spots where you can enjoy nice moments. For example, with a glass of local wine...

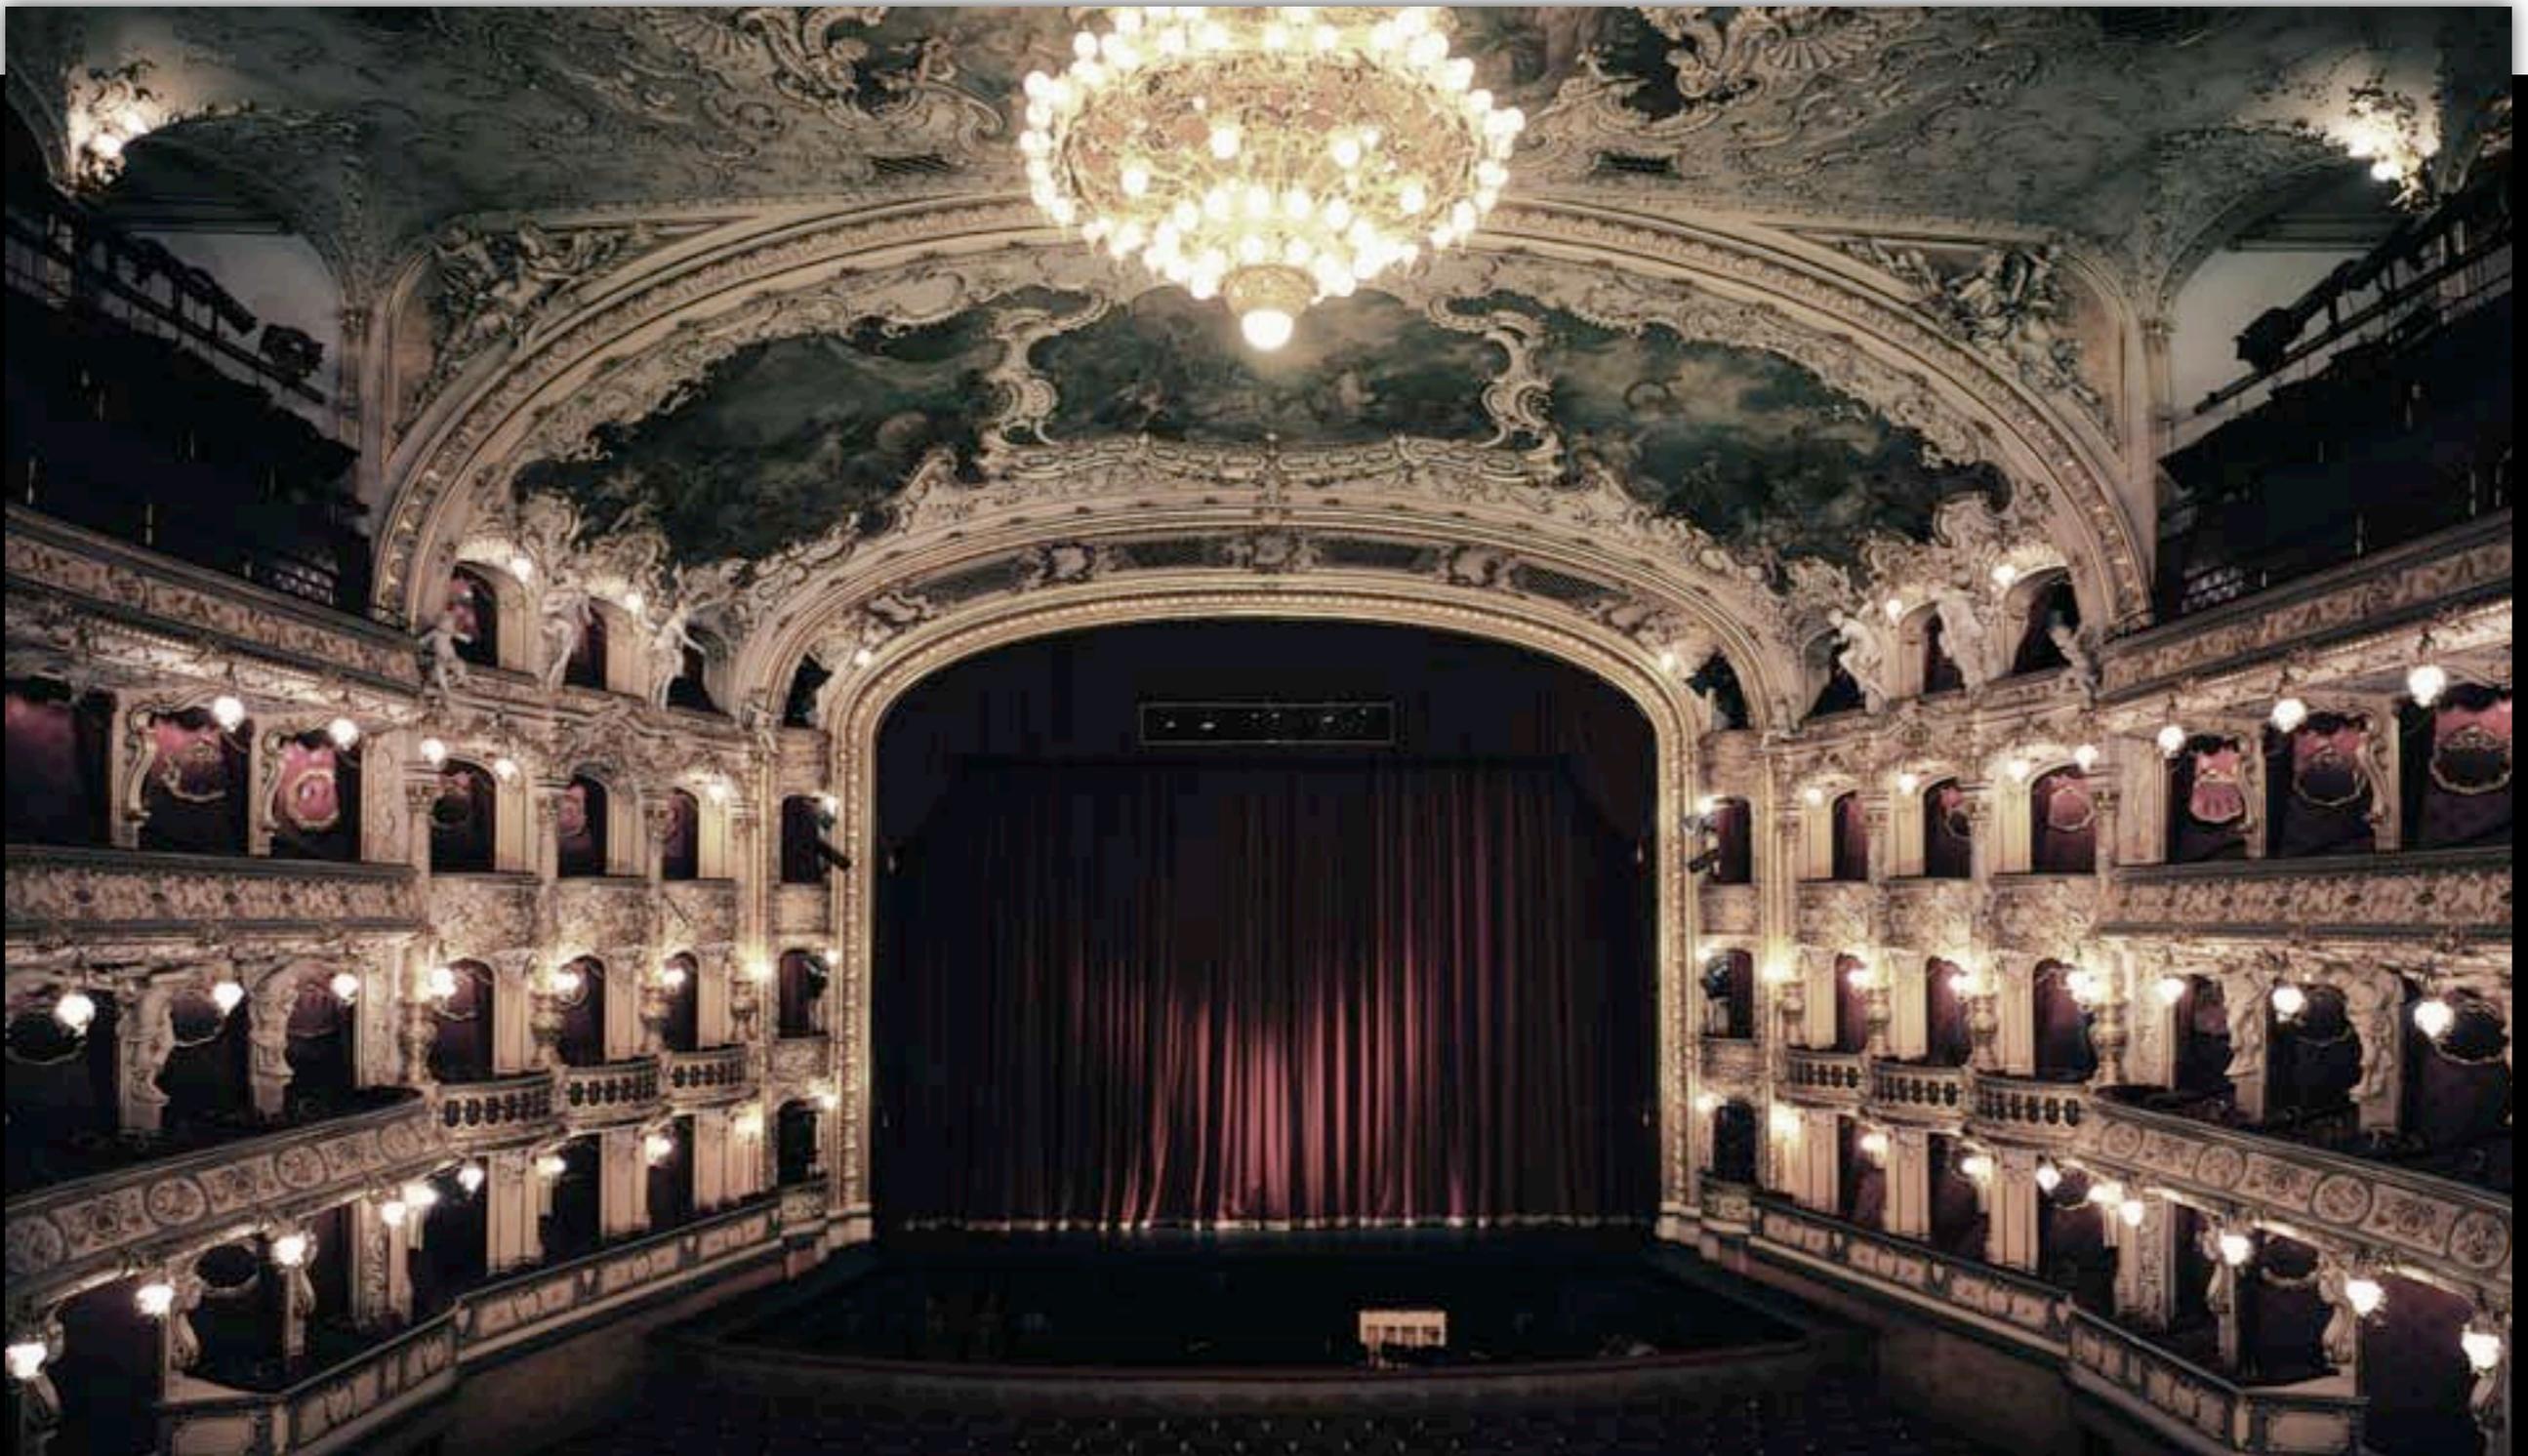

...or with a glass of world-renowned Pilsner beer. Speaking of Pilsen – it is the city that gave the beer its name and is only an hour away from Prague. And you can feel it in every corner of the street, in every pub.

If you want to educate yourself or take a rest, the breath-taking museums in Prague are the right spots for you.

Prague is a perfect city for art as well. It doesn't matter if you are interested in contemporary art and modern design or if you prefer the old masters.

Theatre, opera, ballet... Why don't you experience Don Giovanni in exactly the same theatre Mozart revealed this masterpiece to the world for the first time.

Music and Prague, a perfect match, especially when it comes to jazz. The clubs are everywhere. In the streets, in the cellars, on the river, on the roofs... Just let them find you.

The size of Prague is ideal. You can walk almost everywhere. From jazz club to your hotel room or just to explore the hidden parks, squares and streets.

Or what about getting some fresh air after the meeting. In Prague and its surroundings, you can enjoy a game of golf in 10 amazing top-class golf resorts.

The main reason for travelling to Prague is its atmosphere. You will love it. You will want to come back again. Come to Prague and enjoy it.

The Advoc 2013 Autumn Open Board Meeting is organised by Dvořák Hager & Partners.
